Service Agreement

- Wireless equipment (radio/transmitter/antenna/mast/ac adaptor) remains property of Colorado Wireless Broadband, which is leased to the customer and included in monthly service. If the equipment is not returned within 30 days of service cancellation and in good condition the customer will be charged the MSRP of $395 for the equipment.
- The customer grants Colorado Wireless Broadband permission to repair, maintain, replace, reposition or remove any equipment owned by Colorado Wireless Broadband on the customer's property at any time.
- It is the customer's responsibility to protect, secure, and backup their computer. This includes but not limited to installation of a firewall and software that protects against viruses, spyware, and spam. We take the same precaution on all of our servers and use encryption on all wireless network transmission.
- Parental controls are the responsibility of the customer. Please visit our website for more information. (<http://www.txwinet.com/faq.php>)
- Installation of equipment may require holes, screws, wire, poles, outlets, and wall jacks to your home or apartment. It is not the responsibility of Colorado Wireless Broadband to reverse any changes made during the installation process. The customer is responsible for the safety, inspection, maintenance and repairs of equipment and property after the installation. Onsite service calls resulting from customer computer problems, faulty customer hardware, broken wiring, router or network misconfiguration will be billed at $39.95/hr, 1 hour minimum charge.
- Geographic limitations such as trees and hills may prevent installation of equipment within our coverage radius. Customers just beyond our coverage area with a high elevation and no obstructions to our tower may be candidates for service. It is the customer's responsibility to trim any trees that may interfere with signal after initial installation.
- Network availability of 100% is not guaranteed. It is our goal to prevent network outage and make any repairs as fast as possible. Colorado Wireless Broadband will not be held liable for any network down-time, information lost, or lost productivity. Speeds are maximum rate, not guaranteed, and may vary based on network traffic
- The initial term of service will be for one (1) month and start on the date of this agreement. Following the initial term, the service shall automatically renew for successive renewal terms of equal duration to the initial term, unless customer gives written notice by mail or email of termination at least seven (7) days before the end of the current term. Past due accounts are subject to service suspension and a late charge of $5 per month.
- The use of voice over internet protocol (VOIP) is not supported by Colorado Wireless Broadband. We can not guarantee the availability of emergency medical services (EMS), 911 or E911 service on our network.

This Colorado Wireless Broadband Conditions of use policy is effective 9/16/2005. We reserve the right to modify this policy at any time, without notice. Please report any violations to us.
